RANCHO YOBO ORGANICS

Organic Pauma Valley Farm

Rancho Yobo Organics grows certified organic navel oranges and Hass avocados. Their organic farm, located in beautiful Pauma Valley, has utilized strictly organic methods since 1992. They use no pesticides and their fertilizers are purely organic materials. They weed their grove by hand, harvest by hand and wash/pack by hand. They deliver to each Jimbo's...Naturally! location within two days of picking, thereby providing optimum freshness and nutritional value. As a result, they produce some of the sweetest navel oranges and tastiest Hass avocados available. Their commitment is to bring delicious, nutritious oranges and avocados to your home in a timely fashion.
