SUZIE'S FARM

Organic San Diego Farm

Suzie's Farm is located 13 miles south of downtown San Diego and was established in 2004 by owners Robin and Lucila. Named after a rescued Norwegian Elkhound found on the property, Suzie's Farm grows a vast and unique assortment of seasonal heirloom vegetables. It is their mission to feed San Diegans the freshest and highest quality produce while creating a community of people who are passionate about organic, locally grown produce.
